

Allscripts to deliver anesthesia solution across SingHealth healthcare institutions

May 24, 2018

CHICAGO, May 24, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Singapore's largest public healthcare group, SingHealth, has partnered with Allscripts (NASDAQ:MDRX) to implement iPro Anesthesia across the Group. The advanced software which keeps track of medications and patient's vital signs during surgery, generates digital records that can be used for clinical research and accessed at any time to improve patient care.

With more than 40 clinical specialties, a network of acute hospitals, national specialty centers, community hospitals and primary care clinics, SingHealth delivers comprehensive, multi-disciplinary and integrated care. SingHealth selected the Sunrise suite of solutions in 2007, and successfully leveraged its open platform and application programming interfaces (APIs) to integrate with other software and devices.

iPro Anesthesia is an intuitive, easy-to-use anesthesia information management solution (AIMS) platform designed by anesthesiologists for anesthesiologists to complement existing workflows. The solution offers an end-to-end mobile AIMS solution with fast access to data. Its multi-modular platform is designed to fit the needs of any hospital size or specialty center.

"The combined information supports access to robust clinical data, better patient care and improved quality outcomes in anesthesia," added Allscripts AsiaPac Managing Director, David Chambers. "Allscripts solutions will further enable the healthcare group to deliver highly reliable, quality health care to Singapore."
